Visual – Lighting Design Software

Intended Audience

This training session is ideal for novice Visual users as the instructor will start with a basic overview of the program and continue to real world applications. Recommended skills for attending this course: Knowledge of Microsoft Windows and understanding of Windows Explore files and folders. Recommended but not required skills: AutoCAD or similar CED experience, familiarity with photometric files, lighting design experience.

Course Description

The is one day hands-on program that provides the student an opportunity to follow along with the instructor as they explore solutions for real-world applications using Acuity's applications software. The class will be introduced on how to apply both products and controls in a variety of indoor and outdoor applications.

Learning Objectives

- Evaluate the requirements for indoor and outdoor applications
- Understand new features of Visual
- Confidently navigate the Visual interface, creating and modifying models

Continuing Education

This seminar will qualify for 6 professional development hours (PDH).

Details

Acuity Brands will cover: One night lodging and ground transportation to our facility from hotel the day of the event, lunch during the event. Participant will be responsible for transportation to hotel (fliers) or our facility (drivers) the day of the event.

Location Information

Visual is conveniently offered our Conyers Center for Light & Space.

Address:
1400 Lester Rd NW
Conyers, GA 30012

Phone:
770 922 9000

From time to time Acuity Brands uses, in its promotional materials, photographs and videos of attendees taken at training and education events. By virtue of attending the event, each attendee agrees to the use of his or her likeness in such materials, unless permission to use such images or videos is revoked in writing delivered to Acuity Brands before the event.

AcuityBrands®