New in Visual 2012

We have two new ways to get Visual in the hands of your customers. Both provide access to the latest Acuity Brands products, and access to product selection statistics from your customers.

Complimentary License: Agent pays 50% of the cost. Agents can optionally auto-renew this license annually.

Promotional Code: Give a customer a one-time 50% discount on a license for Visual. No commission deduct is required from the agent. The agent is responsible for renewing any discounted license subscriptions.
